Where did Sons of Norway come from?

In 1895, Sons of Norway was formed as a fraternal benefit society in Minneapolis, Minnesota, to protect members' families from financial hardships. This objective still holds true today with the competitive life insurance and retirement products offered to members.

What is a fraternal insurance company?

Fraternal insurance companies are not-for-profit membership groups that unite individuals with a common bond, empowering them to safeguard their families' financial security by offering life insurance and investment products.

What makes fraternal insurance companies unique?

Fraternal insurance companies form some of the nation's most effective and efficient volunteer networks, delivering direct financial aid and community service to those who need it most.

Do you need to be a member to purchase an insurance product?

Yes, with most of our products you automatically become a member, and for those that don't, it is just a small annual fee.

What are the benefits of becoming a member?

Sons of Norway offers members access to a variety of benefits including Viking magazine (the top-rated member benefit), monthly E-Post digital newsletter, language lessons and cultural resources, plus discounts on travel, clothing, food, entertainment, rental cars and more—all conveniently available online.
